Funchal

actually began her career as the Portuguese Presidential Yacht for transatlantic visits, before her conversion into a cruise vessel. A regular refurbishment programme has maintained her at a high standard. At 10,000 gross tons, this classic cruise liner with her beautiful profile, charming interiors and sheltered promenade decks is renowned for her yacht-like ambience. As a 580 passengers capacity vessel, she is exceptionally convivial and this more social, personalised style of cruising, along with her attentive and dedicated officers and crew, some of which have been with her for over 20 years, has enabled her to attract a strong loyal following of repeat clientele. All around the world, along the magnificent South America coastline, the Artic Circle, the Norwegian fjords, the Atlantic islands, the Mediterranean sea and recently, Australia and the Far East, the Funchal presently stands out as one of the finest examples of classic cruise liners, whose kind is increasingly sought out by experienced cruise travellers. She truly is as enchanting as the beautiful island of Madeira, from whose capital she takes her name.
